CBTU Apprenticeship Services Program Diversity Liaison-Prairies Canada

POSITION SUMMARY

Want to be a part of an exciting new initiative in Canada?

Canada's Building Trades Unions is looking for a full time Diversity Liaison to support the execution of the deliverables and objectives for a federally funded project under Employment and Social Development Canada; the project primary objectives are to support small and medium enterprises (SMEs) to hire 4000 first year Red Seal apprentices with a focus on underrepresented groups; and to provide the necessary training and employment supports to ensure successful apprenticeship completion rates in the skilled construction trades.

The Diversity Liaison will work closely with various community organizations and programs that work to recruit and retain underrepresented groups to the construction industry by leveraging and supporting existing programs to help employer partners meet diversity targets, support apprentices to ensure completion rates, and take a regionalized approach to work closely with stakeholders locally.

Canada's Building Trades Union/Les Syndicats des métiers de la construction du Canada is an affiliation of 14 construction trades unions representing 600,000 craftworkers from coast to coast. Since 1908 CBTU/SMCC and our members have built the roads, bridges, hospitals, schools and factories that fuel the economic prosperity of all Canadians. Our contractors and members are the folks that keep your house warm in the winter and cool in the summer. We deliver value. Every Day

The individual in this position will work under the direction of the Program Director, Project Manager and the Director of Operations, to assist in the registration of individuals from equity deserving groups into apprenticeship programs.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Overall Regional Coordination: Working closely with the Project Manager, Regional Coordinator and community programs to help coordinate and register apprentices from equity deserving groups through SME's;

Stakeholder Engagement and Partnerships: Engage and collaborate with various initiatives to recruit and retain individuals from equity deserving groups to provide the incentive to participating SME's; build strong relationships and partnerships with employers, and other community partners.

Remote Travel: This position will require some travel to remote areas to engage with Indigenous communities and build partnerships to support employers by providing training, supports and incentives to SME's in the recruitment of first year
